Mr. Al Yager, CHA Consultants, was present to address the Board. He said this plan is for 21 single family homes on a cul-de-sac. He said the intersection for the new road is 225 feet from the fog line on Downer Street.

Mike Meyer, Commune Road, asked about drainage in the buffer area between existing properties and new development. They will leave five to ten feet .

Mr. Meyer said he's not happy the town is changing this to PUD because it was supposed to give more control over the way it's developed but he thinks R-40 would have allowed for larger lots.

Mr. Tim Morgan, Lanyard Lane, asked if there will be any other way out besides the Commune Road. Mr. Yager said no.

Mr. Dan Miller, Massey Place, said he liked the larger lots.

258-25-000 MOTION BY Mrs. Gustke, seconded by Mr. Grover, to adjourn the public hearing to the January 7, 2025 meeting.

Assessor's Report:

Senior exemption renewals are being accepted and processed as time permits. An additional review of completed applications has been added for training purposes. Exemption training for our new clerk is progressing well.

The office has 229 Senior Citizen exemption renewals not yet received and 27 applications that require a denial letter because of income limit. Reminder postcards and denial letters will be sent in January.

Renewal applications for agricultural, non profit, firefighters, and clergy exemptions will be mailed in late December.

Regular Town Board Meeting on December 17, 2025

The Assessor attended the NYS Assessor's Association Conference the week of October 6. This was awarded 12 continuing education credits. The attendance set a post covid record with nearly 250 people attending in person.

Course's attended included, Association of Towns "Beyond the Roll" Deep dive into the roll of the Assessor, Inventory and Cost valuation of communication towers, Legal and Valuation challenges in property tax assessment, Administration of Agricultural land assessments, Sales Chasing, and the NYS Office of Real Property Tax updates.

Lysander office update: The assessment clerk has departed to the position of Deputy Town Clerk/Receiver of taxes. An information aide has been hired full time, as a new entry level addition to the Assessor's Office.

Van Buren office update: The new assessment clerk has taken and passed the assessment clerk civil service exam. Her position has been approved by the County and is no longer a provisional appointment.

The Assessor's Continuing Education Status Report is attached. Continuing education requirements met through September 30, 2026. Ethics recertification satisfied for the current term of office.

Ms. Golden said the state has approved legislation, at local option, to increase the tax exemption for low income seniors to 65%.
